No support for grantmaking agencies, fraternal, social, labor, or political organizations.

No grants to individuals, or for sectarian activities, trips, tours, or transportation, deficit spending or debt liquidation, conferences, forums, or special events.

Purpose and Activities

The foundation supports nonprofit organizations involved with arts and culture, hunger, human services, youth, the disabled, economically disadvantaged people, and the homeless. Special emphasis is directed toward programs designed to promote education and health and safety.

Program Area(s)

The grantmaker has identified the following area(s) of interest:

Basic Services Initiative

The foundation supports programs designed to address the immediate capacity of each state's homeless serving-network to meet basic needs of individuals and families. This initiative operates every two years.

Education Initiative

The foundation supports programs designed to improve educational achievements and opportunities for disadvantaged youth and programs designed to build on prior academic successes. Special emphasis is directed toward expanding academic opportunities for low-income and limited English proficient (LEP) students through out-of-school educational programs, extended learning in-school programs, vocational and technical-training, and programs that emphasize the path to further education; elementary programs designed to prevent the "achievement gap" by employing results-based curricula and focusing on basic literacy and/or numeracy; and broadening educational options for LEP students by increasing the number and quality of English language instruction, with a focus on children and adolescents.
