Background

Established in 1984 in WA.

Limitations

Giving limited to WA.

Purpose and Activities

The foundation is dedicated to equal justice for low-income persons. The foundation funds programs and supports policies and initiatives which enable the poor and most vulnerable to overcome barriers in the civil justice system.

Program Area(s)

The grantmaker has identified the following area(s) of interest:

Access Grant

This program makes available one-time grants of up to $2,000 to programs that provide civil legal aid to low-income individuals in Washington State, and are available to support projects that will address language-related barriers to civil legal aid. Eligible projects include, but are not limited to, translation of educational materials, hiring interpreter services, and training volunteer interpreters.

Annual Grant Program

Provides ongoing operating support for programs engaged in the delivery of civil legal services, either on a statewide or local level. It also funds some programs that provide law-related education.

Emergency Grant Program

The foundation may make grants outside of its annual grant cycle in emergency situations.

Goldmark Internships

The foundation provides summer internships with specific host programs to second-year law students. Internships are advertised with more than 50 schools nationwide. Three to five finalists are invited for interview.

Small Grant Program

This program makes available one-time grants of up to $3,500 for projects such as needs assessment study, staff training, purchase of equipment, translation of program materials, pamphlet production, or any other proposal that will increase skills, enhance quality, or strengthen a program's ability to do its work. Organizations and individuals may apply.

Background

Established in 2006 in WA.

Limitations

Giving primarily in areas of company operations OR and WA.

No support for grantmaking agencies, fraternal, social, labor, or political organizations.

No grants to individuals, or for sectarian activities, trips, tours, or transportation, deficit spending or debt liquidation, conferences, forums, or special events.

Purpose and Activities

The foundation supports nonprofit organizations involved with arts and culture, hunger, human services, youth, the disabled, economically disadvantaged people, and the homeless. Special emphasis is directed toward programs designed to promote education and health and safety.

Program Area(s)

The grantmaker has identified the following area(s) of interest:

Basic Services Initiative

The foundation supports programs designed to address the immediate capacity of each state's homeless serving-network to meet basic needs of individuals and families. This initiative operates every two years.

Education Initiative

The foundation supports programs designed to improve educational achievements and opportunities for disadvantaged youth and programs designed to build on prior academic successes. Special emphasis is directed toward expanding academic opportunities for low-income and limited English proficient (LEP) students through out-of-school educational programs, extended learning in-school programs, vocational and technical-training, and programs that emphasize the path to further education; elementary programs designed to prevent the "achievement gap" by employing results-based curricula and focusing on basic literacy and/or numeracy; and broadening educational options for LEP students by increasing the number and quality of English language instruction, with a focus on children and adolescents.
