Donor(s)

The Boeing Co.

Background

Trust established in 1964 in WA as successor to the Boeing Airplane Company Charitable Trust, established in 1952.

Limitations

Giving on a national and international basis in areas of company operations, with emphasis on WA.

No support for political candidates or organizations, religious organizations not of direct benefit to the entire community, athletic groups, hospitals, school-affiliated orchestras, bands, choirs, or drama groups.

No grants to individuals, or for adoption services, memorials, endowments, travel, walk-a-thons, athletic events (except for Special Olympics), door prizes or raffles, medical research, school-affiliated trips, yearbooks, or class parties, general operating support, fundraising events or activities, advertising, t-shirts, giveaways or promotional items, documentary films or books, debt reduction, dissertations or student research projects, loans, scholarships, fellowships, gifts, honoraria, gratuities, or capital campaigns for rental properties.

Purpose and Activities

The foundation supports organizations involved with arts and culture, education, the environment, health, employment, human services, community development, science, civic affairs, and economically disadvantaged people.

Program Area(s)

The grantmaker has identified the following area(s) of interest:

Arts and Culture

The foundation supports programs designed to promote participation in arts and cultural activities and experiences. Special emphasis is directed toward performances and exhibitions that introduce new voices and perspectives to the community; collaborative efforts developed to create a more sustainable arts and cultural environment; and programs designed to engage people to become lifelong arts and cultural participants, patrons, and practitioners.

Civic

The foundation supports programs designed to increase public understanding of and engagement in the processes and issues that affect the community. Special emphasis is directed toward programs designed to address globalization; conservation and sustainability; community building; economic development; workforce development; scientific literacy and uses of technology; cultural, ethnic, and religious diversity; and strengthening the democratic process.

Education - Early Learning

The foundation supports programs designed to promote the development of social, emotional, and cognitive skills in children from birth to age five that are needed to succeed in school and in life. Special emphasis is directed toward programs designed to support parents as a child's first and most important teachers; provide access to an adequate level of information and support to parents; develop formal and informal caregivers; and promote public awareness.

Education - Primary and Secondary

The foundation supports programs designed to promote the development of quality learning environments in the areas of math, science, and literacy for future success in the workforce and in life. Special emphasis is directed toward programs designed to promote teachers' professional development and improve school leadership; improve outcomes for the largest number of students possible, including targeted investments for underserved populations; and encourage school systems to adopt a standard, aligned curriculum.

Environment

The foundation supports programs designed to address climate change and pollution. Special emphasis is directed toward programs designed to inspire environmental citizenship and educate citizens to minimize their impact on the environment; reduce greenhouse gas emissions and increase recycling and energy efficiency; and protect and restore critical natural assets and habitats.

Health and Human Services

The foundation supports programs designed to promote the economic well-being and health of the communities' most vulnerable residents. Special emphasis is directed toward programs designed to foster job training; promote social enterprises; provide new business to low-income communities; promote collaborations that coordinate healthcare services and economic self-sufficiency; address disparities in healthcare; and support projects that improve the efficiency of health and human services systems, including food, housing, and healthcare.

Background

Incorporated in 1986 in WA.

Limitations

Giving limited to north central WA: Chelan, Douglas, and Okanogan counties.

No support for religious sectarian purposes.

No grants to individuals (except for scholarships), or for debt retirement or budget deficits, tuition, annual campaigns, fundraising campaigns or events, or purchases or activities that occur prior to grant decisions.

Purpose and Activities

The foundation makes a difference by serving as a bridge between donors and the broader community. Primary areas of interest include the arts, education, the environment, and the disadvantaged, with emphasis on child welfare and the elderly.

Program Area(s)

The grantmaker has identified the following area(s) of interest:

Methow Valley Fund

Funds for the Methow Valley Community Fund Grant Program are from the foundation's unrestricted endowment and from local contributions from generous donors from the Valley. It was created to enable the local citizens of the Methow

Valley to recommend grants and to build a permanent endowment to provide ongoing funding for the valley nonprofits. Grants are limited to use for general programs, special projects, start-up funding and small equipment needs. Application deadline is January 15; see web site for more information.

Regional Impact Grant Program

The Regional Impact Grant program is the flagship program of the Community Foundation of NCW's Community Grants Programs. Grants are limited to use for general programs, special projects, start-up funding and small equipment needs. Grants are available to Chelan, Douglas and Okanogan County nonprofits. Grant awards shall be no more than $5,000; see web site for more information.

Scholarships

The foundation manages over 70 scholarship funds. Scholarship recipients are selected on an objective and competitive basis considering academic and non-academic factors as well as demonstrated financial need. Some awards are made only on the basis of past student performance. Each scholarship has its own award level and selection committee, which recommends applicants to the Community Foundation Scholarship Committee and Board of Trustees for approval. See web site for additional information.

Background

Established in 1998 in WA.

Limitations

Giving limited to King County, WA.

No support for religious organizations for sectarian purposes, sports teams, or any organization that discriminates against race, sexual orientation, gender, age, marital status, national origin, or physical ability.

No grants to individuals, or for capital campaigns, debt reduction, endowments, land acquisition, or annual campaigns.

Purpose and Activities

The organization aims to develop philanthropy and volunteerism to achieve positive social change in the Puget Sound region, and engages philanthropists to contribute time, money, and business expertise to children's, K-12 education and environmental nonprofits.

Program Area(s)

The grantmaker has identified the following area(s) of interest:

Early Childhood and Parenting Grants

Awards two grants of approximately $40,000 each to organizations with programs that focus on early childhood development and/or foster improved care-giving skills.

Environment Grants

Awards two grants of approximately $40,000 each to organizations that: foster a population of environmentally-informed, responsible, proactive citizens; encourage people from a wide range of interests and disciplines to work together in addressing environmental issues; work to eliminate problems at the source and promote systemic change; or recognize the interrelated environmental economic and social challenges of this work.

K-12 Education Grants

Awards two grants of approximately $40,000 each to organizations or schools working on programs or initiatives that address professional developments and training for teachers, professional development and training for school leadership (principals, assistant principals, lead teachers, teacher mentors, etc.), school-based social support for students, systemic change (including whole-school reform and education policy), parent or community involvement in schools, or academic enrichment for students. Eligible applicants must be 501(c)(3) public charities whose managing staff is located in King County, Washington.

Out-of-School Grants

Awards two grants of approximately $40,000 each to organizations that offer programs that engage youth in safe and constructive activities during out-of-school time, including before and after-school hours, evenings, and weekends.

Social Venture Kids Program

This program introduces kids in grades 9 to 12 to the needs of King County communities through grantmaking, and to instill in them the desire to continue to give to their community throughout the rest of their lives. Each year, the organization will choose one specific focus area to concentrate its grantmaking priorities on.
